THE ZOE BELLE GENDER COLLECTIVE

Auspiced by cohealth, the Zoe Belle Gender Collective (ZBGC) Youth Project aims to support young trans and gender diverse Victorians by:

- providing free consultation and advice on trans and gender diverse youth inclusive practice
- working with partner agencies to develop resources and training for health and community service workers
- working in and with trans and gender diverse communities
- supporting the activities of trans and gender diverse youth groups and organisations
- working with support groups for the parents and families of trans and gender diverse young people.

ABOUT THE TRAINING

This training aims to develop individual practitioner and organisational capacity to provide accessible and inclusive services for young trans and gender diverse Victorians. Sessions range in time from one hour to a full day, providing opportunities for participants to learn about a range of different topics, including:

- trans and gender diverse identities;
- inclusive language;
- experiences and impacts of discrimination;
- gender affirmation and healthcare pathways;
- rights and responsibilities; and
- service access and inclusive practice initiatives.
